International Kinesiology Conference 2017

September 30th to October 3rd Kirchzarten, near Freiburg, Germany

35 years of kinesiology in German-speaking countries! 35 years of IAK, 30 years of the professional association DGAK and with the Australian IKC as a guest. Renowned speakers ... Exciting presentations ... Valuable guidance for individual work ... Celebrating, learning, meeting interesting people and much more. Be a part of it!

Thirty five years of IAK, 35 years of kinesiology in the German-speaking world! We are looking forward to celebrating this anniversary together with you and the second jubilee for the German professional association Deutsche Gesellschaft für Angewandte Kinesiologie e. V. (DGAK). Our special guest during this conference will be the International Kinesiology College Ltd. (IKC), the successor organisation of the Touch For Health Foundation founded by Dr John Thie.

Thirty five years of kinesiology is the only slogan this conference needs and the inventiveness and wealth of experience of our speakers is impressive indeed – something you can really look forward to! As always, you will go home with new insights, handy tips and loads of inspiration.

Meet the founders of different kinesiology methods, the DGAK executive and advisory board, the IKC members of the board & International Faculty Members and VAK- authors as well as the founders, leader and everybody from IAK – Forum International. We are all looking very much forward to extending a warm welcome to you and all participants of the conference!

Sat 10.00 h | Opening | Thomas Ahn, DE

The Karaoke Healing Show

Thomas Ahn, natural health professional and vocal coach, discovered his great passion for music at an early age. Via overtone singing he learned more about the rich facets of his own voice. After training as a sound and voice healer he invented the “Karaoke Healing Show”. This interactive performance allows to enthuse people with music and also to get them into touch with their own power and the potential of their natural voice.

A Welcome by IAK & DGAK

“The IKC” present

Saturday, September 30th

Sat 11.10 – 12.50 h | Günter Haffelder, DE

New developments in brain research

The method of EEC spectral analysis developed by Günter Haffelder makes it possible to gain a deeper insight into functional processes of the brain. This tool is used for researching and diagnosing learning disorders and other functional impairments of brain processes. The EEC spectral analysis method can show the individual interrelations of information intake and processing as well as emotional aspects.

Sat 14.15 – 15.15 h | Anita Berres, DE

Successful with kinesiology in companies

What are the chances, kinesiology brings to companies and institutions in topics like personal development and team-building? Various! Kinesiological Coaching is an efficient measure for easy and sustainable change in obstructive patterns and blocking attitudes and to enhance personal performance.

For professionals and executives and teams.

Sat 14.15 – 15.15 h | Michaela Hespeler, DE

Stimulating the Healing Process – A Change of Perspective Creates New Possibilities

Self-healing is the ability of our body to heal external and internal injuries and diseases. The Body itself is regulating, repairing and regenerating. As a facilitating companion we can offer a different perspective in case of imbalances and initiate a self-regulation process. Demonstrations on the subject of cervical spine discomfort (e.g. whiplash, movement restriction, neck tension) illustrate this approach.

Sat 14.15 – 15.15 h | Maurizio Piva, Italy

Touch For Health In Depth Tips

Maurizio Piva will present some of the content of the Touch For Health In Depth course series. Maurizio Piva, former IKC president and IKC Professional School Dean, is Touch For Health Faculty for Italy, Specialized Kinesiologist, Naturopath.

Maurizio Piva was the pioneer who spread out Kinesiology in Italy since the early 80th.

Sat 15.30 – 16.30 h | Dr. Hans-Georg Häusel, DE

The Power of the Unconscious Mind What kinesiologists can learn from brain research

Dr Hans-Georg Häusel, certified psychologist, is one of the leading experts in brain research in the area of marketing, selling and management. He is the author of many economic bestsellers. His book “Brain View – Warum Kunden kaufen” was elected among the best 100 books about economics by an international jury. He received an Excellence Award as one of the best speakers in the German-speaking world.

Sat 17.00 – 18.15 h | Dr. Charles Krebs, USA

A New Concept of the Etheric Body and its Role in Chronic Imbalances in Physical Systems

In the Eastern Traditions, there are a physical body and subtle energy bodies, the Etheric Body being closest in density and most strongly interfaced to the physical. Distortions of the Etheric Body may compromise healing and result in chronic physical imbalances. You will learn how to access and balance these Etheric Body imbalances eliminating many chronic conditions.

Sat 17.00 – 18.15 h | Sandy Gannon, UK

Following the Body – Following the Soul

Honouring the Inner Wisdom of ourselves and our Clients

The lecture will discuss the tendency to consider and interpret evidence and why this is not always appropriate. We will look at the body as “a thing of wild magic” (Mme Blavatsky) and “the only reality is the [energy] field” (Einstein). Evidence of intuition will be explored in intellectual and practical exercises and participants will leave with a new way of beginning their session.

Sat 20.00 – ca. 22.00 h | Prof. Dr. Wildor Hollmann, DE

Physical exercise and our brain

Prof. Wildor Hollmann is a pioneer in sports medicine and researched which effects movement has on our brain structure. In 1958 he founded the Institute of Circuit Research and Sports Medicine at Cologne Sports University, which he was in charge of until 1990. He has a rich knowledge and life experience, sends us onto a humorous journey through the evolution and tells how physical activity feeds our brain & mind.

Sun 9.00 – 10.00 h | Dr. Sabine Räker-Oese, DE

Hormone tango

Men and women from a hormonal point of view

Understanding hormones, detecting causal relationships, developing therapeutic approaches – this is a bête noire in our daily work, sometimes fear-laden, often ignored. The lecture offers insights in this topic from an evolutionary/nature-based point of view. Men and women – how they differ from a hormonal standpoint. An equally educational and entertaining lecture.

Sun 9.00 – 10.00 h | Anne Keller-de Wild, CH

The five Temperaments

How do the four Temperaments fit into the five Chinese Elements?

Combining the four temperaments with the five Chinese elements helps us to understand better how to understand ourselves better and the people around us. This presentation gives you an insight into the work with temperaments and the importance to develop our own individual life and to respect all other human beings – with humor, lots of examples and easy understandable!

Sun 9.00 – 10.00 h | Gabi Göppel-Kranz, Liechtenstein

Expansion of the senses – expansion of consciousness

Which effect does an expansion of the senses and our awareness have on our consciousness? In which way is our reality influenced by our consciousness? You will learn how to integrate your senses into your kinesiology work in a totally different way and how this can change your experience of the world.

Sun 10.15 – 11.15 h | Irmtraud Große-Lindemann, DE

How basic trust informs our life

The exciting path of our brain development

“Life-long learning” is a nightmare scenario for many. Are we really doomed to learn Latin vocabulary or the use of the latest technology for the rest of our lives? In her lecture, Irmtraud Große-Lindemann explains our journey that begins with basic trust and leads to finding ever new kinds of basic trust through learning. In other words: brain development on our way to our true personality.

Sun 10.15 – 11.15 h | Vicenç Claveria i Quintillà, Spain

AK-Fusion1: Mind and Emotion according to the Chinese Traditional Medicine

Development of the Shen as a form of mind-body interaction within the kinesiological model:

In Chinese Medicine, the Shen is the basis of mental and emotional management and its implications within the physical realm. A working model of the body-mind sphere is presented according to the Shen concept with the tools and methodology of Kinesiology.

Sun 10.15 – 11.15 h | Amy Choi Wai Ming, China

Introduction to Ming's Mirror Method

Listening with your authentic self

Ming's Mirror Method works with conscious and sub-conscious information of the client by mirroring and moving with the client in the vibrational field. The facilitator communicates with the client through her whole body. He/she is guided by all cognitive senses, mainly by proprioception and intuition. As the session unfolds, the client becomes clearer of their balancing theme throughout and after the session.

Sun 11.45 – 12.50 h | Marco Rado, Italy

Embriology: The Scientific Language To Describe Meridians

The common language to share Energy Medicine with science is Embriology, the science that studies the development of the embryos and fetus. Embriology can perfectly describe the meaning of Meridians and their functions, maintaining the definitions and description made by Traditional Chinese Medicine, but opening up new understandings of the interrelationships and physiological functions of the Meridians.

Sun 11.45 – 12.50 h | Mandiro Ordyniak, DE

Seven Dimensions of a good Kinesiology Session

After more than 30 years of experience in encouraging people as a facilitator and leader of groups and trainings, to walk through their own growth process, looking more deeply, feeling what's there and finally living THEIR Dream, 7 key-dimensions showed up to dissolve blockages effectively and deeply. I want to present these and show them in a practical self-balance.

Sun 11.45 – 12.50 h | Alie Relker, Netherlands

Reading Children's Faces

Using universal features is a wonderful way to: Enrich your approach and work with children / Attune easily to their inner world / Understand the special qualities and the potential of a child – join the flow of experience of children / Support the competence and strengthen the skills of children. You learn to observe a child's face; the meaning of universal features and how they are connected with the nature and character traits.

Sun 14.15 – 15.15 h | Günter Dobler, DE

Prenatal trauma dissolve with Biological-medical Kinesiology

Through experiences during pregnancy or events around the birth, the psyche of man can be damaged. For in this phase, the child's brain cannot distinguish between his own feelings and that of the mother.

Thus, for example, by a lost twin, abortion – thoughts or – trials, or a difficult birth, the child's psyche can suffer. The lecture shows, how to reveal and resolve the traumas of pregnancy and childbirth.

Sun 14.15 – 15.15 h | Dr. Wayne Topping, UK

Touch for Health: A Solution for Hidden Epidemics

While Western medicine is straining under dramatic increases in conditions such as obesity, Type-2 diabetes, autism, and Alzheimer's, there are other epidemics, that are creating much discomfort and helping to contribute to the those conditions that medicine is focused on. What is needed is education. TFH is in a good position to provide that education. We will focus on hypoadrenia, hypothyroidism and knee problems.

Sun 15.30 – 16.30 h | Edson Vlijt, DE

Psychology of Martial Arts and Inner Strength

The Art of Balancing one's Energies

Using movements from Martial Arts, we will work on our body awareness and energetic awareness. Anxieties and blockades will thus be dissolved. Shifu Edson Vlijt was born at Bonaire (Caribbean). In 1979 he became Vice World Champion. In 1982 he founded his own Martial Arts Academy in Essen, where he practices Kung Fu, Taijiquan, Qigong, Emotional Fighting, as well as massage of the meridians and acupuncture points.

Sun 15.30 – 16.30 h | Dr. Dominique Monette, Belgium

Hyperton-X or Core Kinesiology

The kinesiology of the axis, of the core

Hyperton-X, created in the '80s by Frank Mahony (one of the first kinesiologists), balances our body around our axis; the physical one, the cranio-sacral system and the spiritual one, our vertical connection between earth and sky. A group of muscles play a fundamental role on the physical axis, the diaphragm being the most important. We will learn the basic theoretical principles of HTX and apply these on a few muscles.

Sun 17.00 – ca. 18.30 h | Dr. Hong-Jae Lee, Korea

K-Cure: The 4 Pillars – a Method of the Future

The possibilities of Korean Magnetotherapy

Get to know the fascinating possibilities of the K-Cure method. Learn at firsthand how the method was developed and what is the motivation and vision behind it. The K-Cure method combines the old knowledge from So Yang acupuncture and magnetism and is used within the context of quantum healing. Dr Hong-Jae Lee has never given a talk in Europe before. Therefore, we feel deeply honoured.

Mon 9.00 – 10.00 h | Dr. Geoffrey Leury, Australia

Energetic Joint Anchors

The idea of how the aura is anchored to the physical body

Energetic Joint Anchors are part of the aura and are associated with each joint of the physical body. They have a special function; they anchor the aura to the physical body. Also, the unique design of Energetic Joint Anchors has practical applications in 'hands-off' healing. This presentation gives a brief description of how the Energetic Joint Anchors works and a practical demonstration of the Eplangetic healing interaction.

Mon 9.00 – 10.00 h | Christiane Wolfes, DE

The dynamic of success

The power of motivation, communication and balance Everybody has an inner question: What is success to me? If the inner truth of being successful is blocked, health and happiness get destroyed easily. This format of communication and balance techniques easily addresses the core of the issue, it builds up a new state of mind and health and strengthens the person for his/her whole life.

Mon 9.00 – 10.00 h | Jackie Lysaght, Ireland

The Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL) as a Catalyst for Educational Improvement

Instructors and students are doing amazing teaching and learning work in kinesiology classrooms. However the evidence is often kept private and if our work is not documented it can disappear in the moment. SoTL encourages us by making it visible, open to peer review, and available for others to build on. We will also explore how we could use SoTL to start a conversation and discussion about teaching and learning in kinesiology.

Mon 10.15 – 11.15 h | Philip Rafferty, Australia

Tests for fight/flight, TMJ And fascia

This presentation shows accurate tests for fight/flight, TMJ and fascia imbalance. If a client is in fight/flight they will be dehydrated and magnesium deficient. No new client has ever passed the TMJ test. Together the fascia and TMJ corrections balance hydration, magnesium absorption and hundreds of hypertonic muscles. I would like a volunteer with fibromyalgia or arthritis to show these corrections for chronic pain.

Mon 10.15 – 11.15 h | Alexandra Tobar, Austria

Trauma – possibilities for stabilisation

A trauma always originates in real outer events that are associated with a heavy amount of stress. In order for a traumatic experience to become a trauma for the individual, a dynamic has to occur which literally brings the brain into a "tight squeeze". Important memory systems of stress management as well as an effective de-stressing method – which can also be used with dissociation – are among the methods presented here.

Mon 10.15 – 11.15 h | Dominik Schenker, DE

SpiraliK – Development of Consciousness

SpiraliK, a concept within the Complementary Therapeutic Method of Kinesiology, links the 5 Phases with the 5 Principles of Spiraldynamik® to a unified movement and awareness model. The resulting dynamic perspective combines physical, mental and emotional everyday experiences on a common plane and allows substantial insights on current development processes.

Mon 11.45 – 12.50 h | Dr. Harald Blomberg, Sweden

Primitive reflexes and osteoarthritis

How to prevent and heal osteoarthritis of the hips and knees

Osteoarthritis of the knees and the hips is caused by wearing of the cartilage due to muscle tensions around the joints. These muscle tensions are caused by active primitive reflexes and when these reflexes are integrated the development of osteoarthritis will be prevented. Another cause of osteoarthritis is acidity and lack of phosphates. By phosphate supplement the osteoarthritis will heal.

Mon 11.45 – 12.50 h | Christian Maier-Straube, DE

Discover your skills and learn as if by magic

A playfully light expedition

There was a time in your life when you learnt an amazing lot without even being conscious of. Without a special purpose, you explored and discovered the world in which you moved around, learning quite a lot of things just by doing and imitating, driven by your childlike curiousness and because you just felt like discovering the world. You will experience how to take up this playful way of learning and what it is really about.

Mon 11.45 – 12.50 h | Robin Brown-Frossard, CH

Exploring Color, Sound and Other Vibrational Tools in Touch For Health

TFH is a wonderful tool for accompanying people who want to reach their full potential. Traditionally we use our hands or those of the person receiving the balance to effectuate the physical contact in our work. Considering the human body as an energy body, we can widen the tools used for our "touch" to include other vibrational sources, such as color, sound, essential oils, mudras, ... all the while respecting the TFH protocol.

Mon 14.15 – 15.20 h | Hugo Tobar, Australia

Emotion and Stress

Where we put it and what can we do about it

In this paper I will explain the physiology of stress and why when we are in the exhaustion phase it is easier to store emotions in our unconscious reservoirs. I will demonstrate some methods of accessing the subconscious and unconscious emotions and strategies for helping the client understand their subconscious and unconscious emotions. After all the power is making your unknown issues known.

Mon 14.15 – 15.20 h | Susanne Krötz, DE

Brain Gym at school

At Lion-Feuchtwanger Gymnasium in Munich, a new school concept started in September 2016, which enables pupils to experience perceived self-efficacy through – among other things – Brain Gym. The presentation shortly outlines the different supporting measures for pupils and how Brain Gym is integrated into the new system. Susanne Krötz is a teacher at a secondary school, where she established Coach- and Learn sessions.

Mon 15.50 – 16.50 h | Dr. Brigitte Michaelis, DE

A slide into better times

Burnout meets Kinesiology

The aim of kinesiology is self-efficacy. That is precisely what people need when previously used solution strategies don't work anymore. Different living conditions lead to different symptoms, therefore I distinguish – depending on living environment, habits, social conditions, etc. – between different categories of the burnout syndrome. Example cases from my practice ensure a lively presentation.

Mon 15.50 – 18.00 h | Sandra Schiffmann, DE

Teaching life skills by way of movement

Already in the 1990ies, the WHO adapted the concept of "life skills". These "life skills" – self-awareness, critical thinking, problem-solving – are intended to enable people to deal effectively with the demands and challenges of everyday life. The workshop offers a mixed bag of theory, movement and ideas for playing so that everybody can gain first insights into the concepts used on different levels.

Mon 17.00 – 18.00 h | Kenichi Ishimaru, Japan

GENE KEYS Kinesiology

An evolutionary journey to Enlightenment

GENE KEYS is a new codebook of consciousness, corresponded to the 64 hexagrams of I Ching, and can be used to bring ultimate light to the dark side of your mind. Your own "key" can be identified by the time, day and place of birth. GENE KEYS Kinesiology can be used to clarify this moment and make you glow towards your enlightenment. I would like to demonstrate the mechanism.
